

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Media Contact:

Jennifer Hoyer

jhoyer@jkworldwide.com

703.574.6667

Barbara Miller Receives Saul Gresky Professional of the Year Award

North Texas Relocation Professionals Present

Sterling, Va. (December 17, 2008) –Barbara Miller was designated as the recipient of the 2008 Saul Gresky Professional of the Year by North Texas Relocation Professionals. The award was presented at the Annual Joint Holiday Breakfast of North Texas Relocation Professionals and the Texas Relocation Network on December 5 in Dallas, Texas.

The Saul Gresky Award was established in honor of long time Board member and Tandy Corporation employee, Saul Gresky. The award is presented annually to one corporate or relocation service professional who:

- Best exemplifies the tradition of high customer satisfaction and service to relocation corporate employees
- Makes a major contribution to the positive image of the relocation profession
- Inspires cooperation and support among members of the relocation industry

As the 2008 recipient, Barbara joins the ranks of other dedicated relocation professionals awarded this prestigious designation since its inception in 1995.

Barbara is a member of the National Association of REALTORS, the Council of Residential Brokers, where she serves as the Treasurer for the State of Texas Chapter, and the Women's Council of REALTORS. She also holds her CRB, GRI and PMN designations with the National Association of REALTORS. Barbara is currently the Director of Client Development for Capital Relocation Services based in Sterling, Va.

“Barbara daily illustrates the values of this award.” said Capital Relocation Services President Mickey Williams. “Her commitment to our clients, coupled with her industry experience greatly strengthens our team.”

###

About Capital Relocation Services, LLC

Capital Relocation Services, LLC, headquartered in Sterling, VA, is a talent management and support firm focused on providing full-service global relocation program management to both corporate clients and the federal government. More information on Capital and The Low Stress Relocation Process[™] can be found by visiting www.caprelo.com.

North Texas Relocation Professionals (NTRP)

NTRP is a network of relocation professionals from all sectors of the relocation industry, including corporations, moving companies, real estate and mortgage firms, relocation management companies and other service providers in the industry. For more information, visit <http://www.northtexasrelocationprofessionals.org>.