

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CONTACT: Rebecca Chanin, 703-574-6667
rebecca.chanin@caprelo.com

CAPRELO ADDS NEW EXECUTIVE LEADERSHIP

Jean Marotta Joins as Vice President of Business Development

STERLING, VA, October 11, 2011 – CapRelo, a full-service relocation management firm that moves over 7,000 employees annually, is pleased to announce new executive leadership with the arrival of Jean Marotta as Vice President of Business Development. As the new VP, Ms. Marotta will lead the company's sales and business development efforts during a time when the company is in an aggressive growth mode.

“Jean is joining us at a pivotal time as the company enters the most dynamic growth phase in its history,” said Mickey Williams, President and CEO, CapRelo. “We wanted to bring someone in to focus solely on new business development and Jean is a perfect fit. She has tremendous experience in the corporate relocation industry, and has worked with numerous corporations, managing wide-ranging employee relocation programs.”

With 20 years of expertise in all sectors of relocation, including corporate, move management and the federal government, Ms. Marotta has held a variety of sales, management and operational positions in her career. Her previous experience includes General Manager and Chief Operating Officer roles with notable relocation firms. As Vice President, Ms. Marotta will be responsible for all aspects of CapRelo's sales activity, including business development and growth, and representation within industry groups.

About CapRelo

CapRelo (CapRelo.com) delivers comprehensive employee relocation management services to global companies, Fortune 100 corporations, and the federal government. Using a proprietary Low-Stress Relocation Process™, CapRelo simplifies and streamlines the complexities of relocation for private and public sector companies and their employees. Capabilities include consultation to create corporate relocation policies, assignment services, expense administration, move management services, cross-cultural training, home sale and purchase, property management and destination services.

###